On April 13, 2005 the Lower Manhattan Development Corporation released a report called, "Guiding the Process: the Public Dialogue and Lower Manhattan Revitalization Initiatives". Included in the report is a draft Funding Allocation Plan developed to guide the use of remaining LMDC funds. The Allocation Plan articulates principles and objectives, priorities, and allocation categories for the remaining funding.

The Public may view the draft Funding Allocation Plan on the LMDC's website at www.RenewNYC.com.

The LMDC is currently accepting public comment on the draft Funding Allocation Plan through 5:00 p.m. on May 1, 2005. You may submit comments on the LMDC website or fax or mail them to:
Lower Manhattan Development Corporation
One Liberty Plaza, 20th Floor
New York, NY 10006
Attn: Comments on Draft Allocation Plan
Fax: 212-962-2431

The LMDC will be holding a Public Forum to accept public comments on the draft Funding Allocation Plan on Wednesday, April 27 at 6:00 p.m. at:
National Museum of the American Indian Smithsonian Institute
One Bowling Green
New York, NY 10004

(Use entrance on street level on Bowling Green close to State St.)

The Forum is open to the public and speakers will be registered on a first come first serve basis. All registered speakers will be allotted a three minute time period for comments that will be addressed to a panel of LMDC leaders.
